Multi-generational accessible kitchens

IN COLLABORATION WITH ADAM THOMAS

Adam Thomas is the UK's leading designer of accessible kitchens, with over 40 years of experience and an unrivalled reputation for his innovative designs. Adam is a full-time wheelchair user and works in partnership with Symphony Group, to set the standard for accessible kitchen design.

Rated one of Britain's most influential people in the Shaw Trust Disability Power 100 list.

Finalist, SBID and Designer Awards, 2022.

Lifetime Achievements Award, 2020 KBB Review Industry Awards.

My passion is to change the face of accessible kitchen design, designing elements that can transform lives and provide independent living. With Freedom the designs can be truly universal, for all the family to enjoy. The range combines style and functionality, so it's perfect for the increase in multi-generational living.
